

Mad Lib: The Masterpiece _____ had a secret dream to be a sculptor. He/she Name

wanted to make the largest sculpture ever created. It would be _____ feet tall and weigh _____ pounds. Everyone number number would be able to see it at _____ amusement park.
Name of park
There would even be a roller coaster next to it called the

_____ .
Adjective Noun

But what to sculpt? A/an _____, a _____, animal person or a _____? After making the decision, he/she had noun to decide what materials to use. He/she decided upon _____, some _____, and food condiment

_____. He/she mixed them together with drink his/her hands. The he/she added _____ of drops of number _____ food coloring. He/she began to work. And color work. And work. It took _____ days to finish the project.

number

“Whew!” he/she said, wiping his/her hands with his/her _____. “I’m so tired I could fall asleep on a
noun
_____ in the _____ . But first, piece of furniture room let me gaze upon my masterpiece. There’s just one word for it: “_____!”

Exclamation